Triumph, Soul-Stirring, and Hope:

“Dennis Williams’ I’ve Cried the Blues” Returns to the Warner Theatre October 11, 2025

*Legendary Studio Shows Announces New Guest Stars Candice Dillard Bassett and Kevin Ross, Plus
Special Mother's Day Ticket Offer for the Acclaimed Musical*

Washington, D.C. — April 28, 2025 — Dennis Williams' critically acclaimed musical, “I’ve Cried the Blues”, is set to make its triumphant return to the Warner Theatre on Saturday, October 11, 2025, at 8:00 p.m. Presented by Legendary Studio Shows, the Musical Story of a Lifetime promises a powerful, soul-stirring experience blending genres of music, resilience, and unforgettable storytelling.

Set against the backdrop of 1945 Little Rock, Arkansas, “I’ve Cried the Blues” follows Mattie, a woman fighting to break free from the grip of the segregated South. Through gripping dialogue and an emotional fusion of blues, jazz, and gospel, the musical captures a raw exploration of love, loss, and the unbreakable will to survive against the tides of systemic injustice.

Following a debut that captivated audiences and critics alike—with unforgettable performances by Grammy Award-winning artist Avery*Sunshine and powerhouse vocalist Keke Wyatt—this highly anticipated reprisal introduces bold new star power. Joining the cast are Real Housewives of Potomac star Candice Dillard Bassett and Washington, D.C.'s own R&B sensation Kevin Ross, adding new energy and music selections to an already captivating production.

Described by television executives as “a life-changing experience,” “I’ve Cried the Blues” is more than a musical—it’s a profound American story of survival, sacrifice, and unrelenting hope.
